Closing Prayer

Charlotte placed her faith in Christ in the mid-1970s and sought to glorify Him with the entirety of her remaining life. She was greatly loved by the multitudes of lives she touched. Her sole desire and last wishes were for others to know the peace and comfort that she had gained by her relationship with the Lord Jesus through salvation. Besides caring for her mother (aged 100), Charlotte was very active in her church, delivered Meals on Wheels and coordinated numerous activities at Lanier Gardens, where she resided.
